Wagon—D. Lauderdale.

Thurber's Mince Meat—Ketchin & Cathcart.

Notice for Final Discharge—C. P. Shirley, Executor.

Next week.

—A service was held in all of the churches on Sunday.

—Cotton was a few points higher Monday than it was on Saturday.

—The National Bank sign is a very handsome one. Gold letters on a black ground.

—Winnsboro Lodge No. 2, R. A. M., will meet at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

—There will be a meeting of the County Medical Association next Monday.

—The Presbyterian Church is the only one in which Thanksgiving services were held.

—Lookout for the Xmas announcement of the Winnsboro Drug Store, in our next issue.

—Most of the stores were closed Thursday, some the whole day, others only a portion of it.

—Mr. S. B. Crawford has erected a very handsome sign in the street opposite the entrance to his stables.

—Every lady is invited to call at Q. D. Willford & Co.'s today; they will find something to their interest. Don't fail to see the great attraction.

—Sun's Phantasma Company has again changed the date of the performance here. The evening of the 10th, instead of the 4th inst., is the time.

—Rev. B. P. Reid, of McDonnell'sville, preached at the Presbyterian Church on Saturday and Sunday, delivering on both occasions able sermons.

—If you want a warm, stylish wrap, go to D. Lauderdale's for it. Everything in that line can be found there. They announce a big cut in millinery prices.

—There were numerous hunting expeditions planned for Thanksgiving day, but the weather being so very damp and disagreeable, only the most enthusiastic sportsmen ventured out.

—Dr. William Alder Player died recently in Darlington. He was more than seventy years of age. In his early manhood he lived near Winnsboro, and many old citizens will remember him and regret to hear of his death.

—Ketchin & Cathcart have in stock the best groceries of all kinds. Thurber's mince meat, Tarbell's cream cheese, Abrams' choice N. O. molasses are among the specialties. Canned and shelf goods of all descriptions a specialty.

—The person whose latest name was H. G. Moler was wanted by the Sheriff of York County, for obtaining money under false pretenses in Yorkville. He answers exactly the description of the party for whom the Sheriff of York is searching.

—We unintentionally omitted from the report of Saturday's Court proceedings, the case of R. S. Desportes vs. Cyrus W. Hunter. Motion to set aside judgment. H. A. Gaillard and O. W. Buchanan represented the defendant, H. N. O'Neal, the plaintiff.

—Rev. J. W. Daniels, of Columbia, lectured on the subject of temperance and prohibition in the Court House on Friday evening. In favor of prohibition he made use of some almost irrefragable arguments, and on the whole made a very impressive appeal in behalf of the cause of temperance.

—At the meeting of the young men on Friday evening, it was decided to give a ball on the 31st inst., provided something unforeseen does not prevent. A chairman and a committee of arrangements were selected, and preparations will be commenced immediately. Music will probably be furnished by the Lily Orchestra of Columbia.

—The New York Symphony Club which gave such a delightful performance here on last Wednesday night, was owing to the delay at Simpson's Turnout the morning after the performance, prevented from reaching Charleston in time to fill their engagement in that city. We understand that suit has been, or will be, brought by them against the Richmond and Danville Railroad.

—Major James Pagan, who is the crop correspondent for the U. S. Agricultural Department from this county, was some time ago commissioned to visit the county fair which was held here on the 3rd and 4th inst. and make a report to the Department upon the products of the soil exhibited there and to obtain samples of the best exhibits. The object of the Department is shown in a letter to Major Pagan in which the Assistant Secretary says: "I am making a systematic effort to secure samples of all the cereals and agricultural products of the United States for a comprehensive exhibit of the same at the Chicago Exposition, arranged and classified according to States and climatic conditions." The commission arrived too late, however, for Major Pagan to visit the Institute and obtain samples from them but he is now making an effort to collect a number of the best specimens of the agricultural productions of the county for the purpose of forwarding to Washington, to be used as above stated. He desires it stated that he will be greatly obliged to all who will send him such samples of cereals, etc., as can be utilized by him in getting up the contribution from Fairfield.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—The following is a list of the letters remaining unclaimed in the postoffice, for the week ending November 23:

Mr. B. M. Davis, Jennie E. Green, Gus Middleton, Mrs. E. A. Wallis, M. C. B. Young.

Persons calling for any of the above will mention that they are advertised.

THE OLD STORY.—A horrible story of the accidental burning to death of a small colored child comes to us from White Oak. On the 23rd inst. a negro woman, residing on the plantation of Mr. R. A. Parfick, went out to make a few purchases at a neighboring store, and left her child, a little thing about three years old, in the house by itself. Upon her return after a very short time she missed it, and upon looking found it in the yard burnt to a crisp. The child evidently made no noise or uttered any screams, as the father, who was working in the lot nearby, knew nothing about it until applied of the fact by the mother of the child. It is a deplorable fact that the number of accidents of this description is not on the decrease but that the opposite is the case, and the cause we are forced to believe is carelessness, which is almost criminal in its nature.

A WARNING.—For the benefit of those concerned, we publish some extracts from section 29 of the revised ordinances of the town of Winnsboro, simply as a reminder or warning, as the Council is going to be active in the enforcement of the law as therein laid down:

Any person who shall wilfully furnish any intoxicating drink by sale, gift or otherwise to any person of known intemperate habits, or to any minor, or to any insane person, for use as a beverage, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, or shall be imprisoned ten days in the county jail of Fairfield County.

That if after the passage of this Ordinance any person shall deliver to any other person any spirituous or malt liquors, for any past, present or future consideration, between the hours of twelve o'clock on Saturday night and twelve o'clock on Sunday morning, at any place within the corporate limits of said town of Winnsboro, the person so offending shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars, or to ten days imprisonment in the county jail of Fairfield County.

Persons.

Hon. O. W. Buchanan spent Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Miss Ida Sagenheimer has returned from a visit to relatives in Chester.

J. E. McDonald, Esq., left Monday afternoon for Columbia on professional business.

Hon. A. S. Douglass went to Columbia Monday on business before the Supreme Court.

Prof. W. E. Mikell, of the Blackstock Academy, spent Saturday night and Sunday in town with friends.

Cadet Robt. E. Ellison, of the Citadel Academy, is at home on sick leave. He is not seriously ill, we are glad to say, but a little too sick to study.

Miss Alma McDown, who has been visiting Miss Nannie Cummings, left Thursday for her home, Darlington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gaillard, of Rome, Ga., after a short visit to near relatives in town, left Thursday for their home.

Misses Anna McKinnon and Lou Melver left Thursday afternoon, after a very pleasant visit to Miss Nannie Cummings, for their respective homes.

Both human and horses and all animals cured in 20 minutes by Woolford's Sympathy Lotion. This never fails. Sold by W. E. Aiken, Druggist, Winnsboro, S. C.

COURT PROCEEDING.

Tuesday.

Tuesday was the last day of the extra session of the Court of Common Pleas, as on that day the Court adjourned sine die.

The case of Coley et al. vs. Lyles occupied the attention of the Court the whole of the day until adjournment. His Honor reserved his decision in this case. Counsel for plaintiffs, A. S. & W. D. Douglass; for defendant, W. H. Lyles.

UPPER LONGTOWN LOCALS.

LONGTOWN, S. C., Nov. 27.—Special: The most of the cotton crop has been gathered in this section and a small one it is indeed. Farmers cannot pay out with a small crop like this and cotton only bringing 6 and 7 cents.

Truly the Southern farmers condition will never be bettered until he makes his own bread-stuff at home and quit buying Western produce with 6 and 7 cents cotton.

Mr. G. B. Bash and Brother Tidwell, of Hopkins, are visiting at Mr. D. W. Tidwell's.

Two young men from Longtown had the misfortune to have some money stolen from them while at the State Fair, one losing $10 and the other $15.

Parties from Union County have established a saw mill two miles from Upper Longtown road.

Mr. Sam Mobley, collecting agent for Hall & Crawford passed through this section this week.

When will the railroad be built? Soon I hope.

With best wishes to the HERALD.

E. H. D.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Waterhouse, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache."

RIDGEWAY NEWS.

RIDGEWAY, S. C., Nov. 26.—Special: In spite of the rain today Ridgeway's streets are in the field with gun and dog. This being Thanksgiving day the stores and post office are closed and the school children have holiday.

The rain is falling, the streets are dark with mud, and the town has quiet Sunday appearance.

Little Bunchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Boleck, died here last week. She was in her third year.

Messrs. J. B. Boyd, A. T. Moore, C. L. Wray, and F. C. Withers took in the August Exposition Friday, Nov. 17, and Messrs. W. H. Ruff, L. F. Thomas, J. P. Cooper, and E. C. Hells went last week.

Miss Annie Garetton, Marion Richards, and Maggie Thompson, of Liberty Hill, Kentucky County, were invited by Dr. Edmunds and wife, have now returned home.

Miss Marion Boyd spent last Saturday in town.

Mr. A. F. Ruff, of Rock Hill, is in town.

The present abominable schedule on the C. & A. Railroad is the subject of much unfavorable comment in Ridgeway.

A negro made a rather bold attempt at stealing here a few days since. He was in the store of Mr. W. R. Bar. He came in and was looking here, reached over the counter, opened the money drawer, and took therefrom $1.25; but just then Mr. S. L. Crumpton stepped into the store in time to see the negro slip the money into his mouth. Mr. Crumpton ordered him to drop the money. He first denied having done anything, but on seeing that Mr. Crumpton knew better, he opened his mouth letting the money drop and made a hurried escape through the rear door. Mr. Crumpton gave chase, but the negro succeeded in eluding him. The name of the negro is not known.

Another negro spent the night in the guardhouse a short time ago for stealing pinders from the store of Mr. C. W. Wray.

Ridgeway's own colored band was to have entertained the citizens with music on the streets this Thanksgiving afternoon, but the weather unfortunately prevented. It is hoped that the band will treat us to some of its music at some other time in the near future. They can play very well.

Dr. G. G. Dwight, of Winnsboro, an Executive Committee, consisting of the following members, was appointed: President Withers, School Commissioner A. Y. Milling, F. C. Withers, Miss Lucie Neil, Miss Lula Blaine.

Messrs. J. R. Sterling, F. C. Withers and D. G. Dwight were appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Association.

The above is about all of the business of importance transacted. In calling the meeting to order, Mr. Milling addressed a few remarks to the teachers present, in which he endeavored to impress upon them the necessity and importance of such an organization as the one which they proposed to revive.

Just before the close, Prof. Withers briefly outlined the object of a Teachers' Association, and stated that he would, at the next meeting, propose a plan for the formation of a circulating library for the benefit of the members. At the close of his remarks, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the Executive Committee.

All the teachers present expressed themselves as much pleased with what had been accomplished.

Dr. G. W. Earle, Pickens, S. C., writes: "I recommended B. B. B. to a man who had suffered for years with a malignant ulcer on his leg, that seemed to resist all other treatment. After using four or five bottles the ulcer began to heal and his leg is now sound and well."

A GREAT SUCCESS.

The music-loving people of Winnsboro have been peculiarly fortunate in having in one week the opportunity of hearing two of the most celebrated musical companies on the road. The concert Wednesday evening of the New York Symphony Club is pronounced by all who were present by far the most charming entertainment of the kind ever given in the Opera House here.

We would like to comment, and favorably too, upon each number on the entire program, but this is impracticable to do so. We cannot, however, refrain from making special mention of several. Mr. Charles F. Higgins, the young violin virtuoso, completely captivated the audience. His playing is decidedly superior to any which has ever been heard here.

Miss Edith, the soprano of the club, rendered her parts of the program in a style which greatly pleased her hearers. She is possessed of a very highly cultivated soprano voice and sings with remarkable ease.

Miss Florian sang in a sweet and highly cultivated voice a number of very pretty vocal selections, some of which were very difficult. Probably the hit of the evening was by her in the bright simple little song, "Till for Tat." Her voice is one of wonderful range and compass.

H. Cornelius, the clarinetist, succeeded in delighting the audience in his execution of some very high class music.

Rudolf von Searpa is a pianist of extraordinary ability. His "Rhapsodie Hongroise" was simply grand, as were his other numbers.

One thing was very noticeable and for which the company deserves the highest commendation, and that is the readiness and willingness with which every performer responded to the wishes of the audience. The audience appreciated this, and it has been the subject of many favorable comments.

H. Cornelius, the courteous manager, has promised that he will bring his company back again, provided a good house will be guaranteed. We feel certain that if they do come again they will be greeted by more than the mere handful of people present Wednesday night. Mr. Douglass is congratulated on the fact that the Opera House plan was not again inflicted on the audience. In addition to being a most accomplished company of musicians it is the most accommodation.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Caloused Lumps and Blisters from Horses, Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-Bones, Stiles, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Congis, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Bleeding Cure ever known. Sold by W. E. Aiken, druggist, Winnsboro, S. C.

WOODWARD NEWS.

WOODWARD, S. C., November 27.—Special: Thanksgiving day was generally observed in this section and there seems to have been a complete cessation from all business and work. The stores at this place and Blackstock were closed throughout the day. Extra dinners in which well stuffed turkeys figured conspicuously were the order of the day. Religious services, conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. P. Smith, were held in the Presbyterian Church at Blackstock in the forenoon and in the afternoon the officers of the church held their quarterly meeting and some very important business was transacted.

Mr. J. M. Galloway, of White Oak, having been invited to lecture on the sub-treasury scheme at this place on last Saturday, was promptly on hand and delivered a forcible address on the Alliance demands and other topics of interest to farmers to a small but attentive audience. He threw much light upon their most vexing troubles and gave their opponents some strong arguments to reflect upon. He completely exploded the foolish and absurd idea that the present agricultural and financial depression is due to an over production of cotton and advances the more reasonable and logical view that it has been brought about by a contracted currency and legislation and laws that are entirely repugnant to the farming interest of the country.

Mr. White Bridge and Miss Maggie Cloway were united in marriage on Wednesday last, Rev. J. S. Douglas officiating. The happy event was to have been consummated on Wednesday of the previous week, but on account of a slight illness of the bride-elect, it was given over to Wednesday last. Mr. Brice is a member of the sale and delivery firm of Carpenter & Brice, of Chester, and is a young man of much business tact, and if he makes as good a husband as he does a horse trader we are strongly of the opinion that his lovely bride will never regret the step she has taken.

The cotton has about all been gathered and the crops are fully a third short, which together with the low price the farmers have been forced to take has given them a very gloomy and mercantile interests an irreparable setback.

Some grain is being sown, but I fear that on account of the scarcity of seed and money many will be deterred from sowing as much as they would like to do.

Mr. L. C. Caldwell and family, of Statesville, N. C., are visiting at Mr. Calvin Brices.

Mr. J. W. Reid, of Reidville, S. C., Secretary of the State Alliance, is visiting his brother-in-law, the Rev. H. P. Smith, at Blackstock.

Mr. J. M. Coleman made a flying trip to Augusta on Thursday and returned the same day.
